Welcome to Magari Tours

Our family of hand-crafted, escorted tours will take your travel experiences to a new level – providing deeper, immersive and truly authentic adventures.

Capturing the essence of Magari

Magari is about exploring Italy more deeply and closely than you can on a conventional escorted tour. Our logo captures this vision: blending images of a seed-blown dandelion with colourful Mediterranean tiles and the four points of a compass. The result is a symbol that conveys the richness and variety of discoveries you will enjoy when you travel with us.

Imagine for a moment the secrets behind the most delicious pasta dish you ever tasted: olives from local trees, wild mushrooms from nearby forests, and the skills of a local cook. Transfer these principles to tours and you have Magari. Our tours make the most of a region, get beneath its skin and reveal it from the inside rather than the outside, with nothing added or taken away.

Why did we choose the name Magari?

Call it fate – in researching tour names, we found this Italian word, which means anything from ‘I wish’ to ‘if only’ or ‘perhaps’ – feelings that chime with our aim of making travellers’ experiential dreams come true. ‘Magari’ also stems from the ancient Greek ‘makarios’ meaning a ‘happy, blessed event’ – something we hope you feel when touring with us.

What you need to know

Magari Tours offer authentic experiences in each destination we visit. Each tour is specially timed, so you experience every location at its purest, original, and uncrowded best and no trip will run with more than 19 passengers.

We make a point of focusing less on tourist highlights and more on smaller, lesser-known but enchanting locations: visiting villages and hidden gems often overlooked by conventional, conveyor-belt-style itineraries.

We choose our hotels and food with authenticity and sustainability in mind. Rather than glossy global chains, we hand-pick privately owned hotels rooted in their communities and which promote sustainable practices. And we steer away from fine-dining and silver service, instead favouring rustic trattorias and hotel restaurants that serve classic, unpretentious local fare.

The finishing touch comes from our tour leaders. Each is passionate and knowledgeable about their region, and knows first-hand what makes an escorted tour seamless and special. Their expertise and dedication ensures your time with us is as effortless and enriching as it can possibly be.

The Magari Difference

What makes us different?

We think it's the simplicity and authenticity of our holidays and the people we work with.

We've dug deep into each region to offer unique handpicked highlights such as dining at a private 'Baglio' farm in Sicily and learning the art of Sicilian chocolate-making at a chocolaterie, along with tours that discover hidden villages overlooked by the main tourist itineraries – we uncover the heart and soul of some of Italy's and the Mediterranean's most characterful and timeless destinations. With so much included, our tours provide a genuinely comprehensive travel experience, so we don't need to offer 'optional' excursions. If there's something worth experiencing and it chimes with the Magari style - we will always build it into your tour anyway.

Making memories

Our tours get to the heart of a destination as you meet local people and discover more about their way of life, culture, food and heritage offering more immersive, authentic encounters. Magari Tours are fascinating holidays of discovery to travel through 'off the beaten track' Italy leaving you enriched and mesmerised by the places you visit and the people you meet along the way.

Responsible

Every hotel and accommodation is chosen for playing a key part in the local economy and following eco-friendly and sustainable practices: from employing local people to using local suppliers and farmers growing organic produce. So, you can be confident your visit will support the local community and leave a positive impact wherever you stay.

Culinary

Food is at the heart of every region's culture, so all our tours have a strong gastronomic slant. Our journeys include hotel and trattoria breakfasts made from the freshest seasonal produce, and a generous sprinkling of delicious meals at humble trattorias and family-run eateries. We also include local wine tastings and other mouth-watering delicacies at farms and agritourism estates, and authentic culinary demos by local cooks.

Cascina Carretto

Locally grown, freshly picked

Garibaldi Bistrot

Handpicked artisan experiences

All our tours include the chance to immerse yourself in experiences that are not available through mainstream travel providers. It's a chance to live and breathe like a local, getting a real sense of their passion for their surroundings, and understand - as the Lamberti's say - "the bond we have with our native land". See individual tour pages for some examples.

Francesco & family, Torre Marabino

What our customers say about travelling to Italy with us

"This is a lovely hotel. The food is amazing. And I just like the variety of the places that we've been to visit. You could almost sell it as a food and wine tour as well as the Secluded Tuscany tour. I think it's a good variety of places we've been to visit. The cheese farm, the olive oil farm and of course the wineries."

Katharine Blakemore - Tuscany Tour

"We are lucky to have Wendy (Tour Guide). She's English but speaks fluent Italian and can tell us things we wouldn't normally know about Italy otherwise. She's good at giving us bite-size amounts without notes. It was like we were travelling as her guest rather than her client."

Mr & Mrs Jupp - Tuscany Tour

"Just to say we had a lovely time on our Magari Tour - Lombardy. The Tour Manager was outstanding. Enjoyed the location of the hotel, family staff were very friendly and efficient, and everything felt relaxed with really good dinner choices and wines."

Mr & Mrs Brown - Lombardy Tour

"Everything was taken care of, from our perfect Trulli accommodation and authentic Puglia food and wine to our daily outings, which not only gave us an overview of the lovely surroundings but introduced us to so many different aspects of Puglian life. I do not think the holiday could have been bettered! In all our holiday-making, we would be hard pushed to think of a more enjoyable and better organised trip."

One of Umbria's many incredible sights is the stunning city of Orvieto perched on a huge limestone rock-outcrop. Tucked away, down an alleyway in its historic centre is Il Labirinto, a welcoming and traditional restaurant where owners, Alessandra and Maurizio pride themselves in offering authentic Orvieto dishes such as 'umbricelli', home-made pasta. After we have enjoyed a wonderful lunch, a totally unique experience is a visit below the restaurant to the labyrinth tunnels built into the rockface in the ancient Etruscan era – an insight into a bygone way of life.

Il Tempio del Gusto

We have a culinary treat in store with a delicious seafood lunch at Il Tempio del Gusto in Spoleto, just a few minutes walk from our hotel and the Piazza del Mercato. In one of Italy's most charismatic and authentic medieval centres, the restaurant is located in an ancient stone-walled building with extensive underground wine cellars. We can look forward to chef-inspired dishes using the freshest Umbrian produce paired with delicious Umbrian wines and served with impeccable, yet friendly service from the third generation of family owners.

La Fonte di Bevagna

La Fonte di Bevagna is one of Umbria's most authentic agriturismo and wineries producing organic wine and their own top-notch olive oil. In a peaceful setting, La Fonte's original Umbrian farm-house is nestled in the middle of the Umbrian countryside, and at the head of the famous Montefalco wine valley. We will learn all about this unique artisanal set up with an intriguing tour and wine tasting with Francesco, the owner and winemaker. Afterwards, we will sample five delicious wines accompanied by a selection of cured meats, traditional cheeses, bread and olive oil – salute!

Secluded Tuscany

Velvety hills woven with cypress-lined avenues, grand villas and medieval hill towns - Tuscany is a vision of beauty. Yet beneath its gentle scenery and medieval treasures lies a richer, deeper Tuscany - one of rustic produce, aromatic wines, and towns and villages overlooked by typical touring itineraries.

We balance this hidden Tuscany with must-sees like Siena and Montepulciano on this 6-night tour. Staying in the quiet town of Castel del Piano, we discover Renaissance-era Pienza, ancient Orvieto, and seaside Castiglione della Pescaia, intertwining them with enriching local culinary experiences. Dine at humble trattorias, sample fragrant olive oil, taste wines and cheeses at artisanal estates, and more - and leave having experienced the true taste of Tuscany.

Grand Hotel Impero

Castel del Piano

Occupying a former manor house standing in its own gardens on the edges of Castel del Piano, the 4-star Grand Hotel Impero combines aristocratic looks with high standards of accommodation and warm local hospitality. The owners are passionate about delivering exemplary service and top notch cuisine - the well-regarded restaurant here uses locally sourced ingredients to serve food and wines as good as or better than those at typical local trattorias.

The lovely salmon-pink façade of the hotel opens to a swish, whitewashed interior with a smart lobby lounge, two stylish restaurant rooms and a lounge bar. The contemporary guest rooms are decorated in a simple, understated but modern style and offer garden or mountain views, a flatscreen TV, safe, mini-bar and private bathroom with shower. The unmissable sight here is the golden Duomo façade, which shimmers in the sun and boasts 14th century reliefs of biblical scenes. After absorbing this and other sights, we enjoy lunch at a wonderfully authentic restaurant burrowed into the volcanic rock. Heart & Soul of Sicily

Diverse history, stunning scenery and tempting food make Sicily one of the Mediterranean's most satisfying destinations. Here the best journeys unravel the island's storied past, spotlighting the Greek, Roman and Norman contributions to the architecture, landscapes and cuisine that greet visitors today.

This 9-night tour of Sicily's north and south focuses less on tourist hotspots than its below-radar treasures and traditional gastronomy. In-between visits to Agrigento's UNESCO-listed Valley of the Temples, baroque Ortigia and gritty Palermo, we discover hidden towns like Naro and Scicli, unwind at intimate hotels, and eat at charming trattorias, sample home-grown wines and chocolate, and devour fresh seafood and pasta at boutique local restaurants and agritourism estates.

Where is Sicily?

Why are we staying in 4 hotels for this tour?

Sitting in an important strategic spot for trading connecting the Western and Eastern Mediterranean, Sicily has always been an incredible melting pot of civilizations and nationalities over the centuries. The Greeks, The Romans, The Arabs, the French and the Spanish all left their mark across the island. By staying in different places, we can experience the rich cultural highlights of this remarkable island and its spectacular architecture, temples, cathedrals, art and cuisine. We travel out of season when the island is wonderfully uncrowded and comfortably warm with average temperatures of 20°C.

Our carefully handpicked hotels are selected for their unique locations, friendly service and proximity to iconic ancient attractions. These include the welcoming family-owned Al Madarig situated in the authentic Arabic fishing town of Castellammare del Golfo. Whilst the charming Colleverde Park in Agrigento sits just above the famous 'Valley of the Temples' – the Greek city of Agrigento – its lush tropical gardens are the perfect setting for a sundowner. The Principe d'Aragona is in the centre of the ancient baroque town of Modica with its magnificent cathedrals and buzzing shops, restaurants and cafes. Surrounded by Greek ruins, ancient alleyways and tiny seafood restaurants, the Baroque styled Hotel Livingstone in coastal city of Ortigia looks out across azure blue waters.
